Dear Mr Slater

Although there has been no difficulty in engaging singers, owing to a series of disappointments with violinists, my proposed October Delius recital will not take place. From now on everything will be in the hands of an experienced arranger of concerts, Mr Alan Tabelin, who is now secretary of our Delius Society, which is, with 196 correspondents, being established formally. Would you please address any letters relating to the new Delius Society to

Alan Tabelin

7 Gloucester St, S.W. 1.

You will soon receive a circular from Mr Tabelin, also information from the Bradford Delius Festival organisers, with whom I am in touch.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely

Roland Gibson.
