

DELIUS SOCIETY

NEWSLETTER

(Chairman)

David Simmons.

Dear Member,

The London Concert at the Festival success - artistically.

Our President, Eric Fenby, came down from Yorkshire and we had great pleasure in meeting his wife and also Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Emanuel.

One extract from Andrew Porter in the Financial Times is perhaps the most significant, inasmuch as he is the one critic whose enthusiasm for music often seems undiminished.

For those that missed the Bradford Festival, we make the principal part of next month's newsletter a contribution from Rodney Meadows, a member of the Society's committee, who offers reflections on an event which it was felt should be given some permanence in this form.

Regarding the London performance of the Mass of Life, the concessions for this concert are the same as last time. For every ticket a member buys they will receive a free one. It is being held at the Royal Albert Hall on Monday, 10th December, and members are cordially invited to attend the reception before the Concert at the Royal School of Music (the Donaldson Room) between 5.45 and 7.15 p.m. Members of the committee will be wearing a red rose so as to identify themselves.

Those members who wish to take advantage of the concessions please send a stamped addressed envelope with remittance to Hon.Sec.

Would members and friends who wish to attend the reception inform the Honorary Secretary immediately to facilitate refreshments arrangements.

Yours sincerely,

(Sgd) DAVID SIMMONS
